

Performance Report – 02nd Quarter April to June, 2019

Introduction

The Commission was established in 1996 by the Human Rights Commission of Sri Lanka Act No.21 of 1996. The Act sets out the legal basis and operational principles of the Human Rights Commission. Although reference to the HRCSL has been made in the Constitution of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka, it is not formally established by the Constitution. The Chairperson and Members of the Commission are appointed under the provisions set out in the Constitution.

The Act recognizes the jurisdiction in the Commission in terms of fundamental rights and human rights. Fundamental rights are certain civil and political rights as well as economic, social and cultural rights guaranteed in Chapter III of the Constitution of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka. Human rights are defined in the International Law.

The statutory functions of the Commission are:

- to inquire into, and investigate, complaints regarding procedures and violations or imminent violations of fundamental rights, with a view to ensuring compliance with the provisions of the Constitution.
- to advise and assist the government in formulating legislation and administrative directives and procedures, in furtherance of the promotion and protection of fundamental rights;
- to make proposals to the Government regarding measures to ensure that national laws and administrative practices are in accordance with international human rights norms and standards.
- to advise the Government regarding subscribing or acceding to treaties and other international human rights instruments.
- to promote awareness of, and provide education in relation to human rights. (Section 10 of the Act No. 21 of 1996)

The Commission carried out its functions with a staff consisting of 148 members. The Commission consists of four Divisions of Inquiries and Investigations, Education & Special Programmes, Research & Monitoring and Administration & Finance as well as 10 Regional Offices. (Ampara, Anuradhapura, Badulla, Batticaloa, Jaffna, Kalmunai, Kandy, Matara, Trincomalee and Vavuniya) Every Division functions under a Director while each Regional Office functions under a Regional Co-ordinating Officer. All Divisions as well Regional Offices are supervised by the Chairperson and/or a Commissioner/ Commissioners.

During the period under review a host of activities was lunched by the Commission which are analyzed in the Report.

During the Quarter under review, the Commission had to engage with various matters arising out of Easter Sunday attacks including ethnic violence unleashed targeting the Muslim Community on the 13th of May and thereafter. The Commission hastened to respond by appealing to the general public to refrain from retaliating violence, addressing various government entities on the necessity to do away with the practice of discriminatory treatment against the members of the Muslim Community, holding and facilitating Island-wide community dialogues and conducting inquiries into the complaints lodged with the Commission. Further, the Commission also initiated action to make use of media to draw public attention to the necessity of respecting equal citizenship of all concerned and engaging in amicable settlement of disputes.
