HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION OF SRI LANKA
HUMAN RIGHTCOMMISSION OF SRI LANKA

Public Notice

It has come to the attention of the Human Rights Commission of Sri Lanka (HRCSL) that certain unscrupulous organizations and individuals are posing as the HRCSL or its representatives and charging money for "services" they claim they are rendering as the Commission. Those "services" include providing complaint forms and letters declaring human rights violation for a fee. Some organizations have raised funds for seeming human rights campaigns giving the impression that funds are solicited by the HRCSL.

Further some groups use the state logo on their vehicles, letter heads and institutional IDs accompanied by organizational names using words such as "national human rights organization / institution / centre" to mislead the public.

HRCSL is the only State human rights institution entrusted with promoting and protecting human rights at a national level. The Commission does not charge fees for any of its services.

Please call our hotline 1996 or 011 2505575 if you have observations and or/questions in this regard.
