Human Rights Commission of Sri Lanka

Press Release

The Delegation of the European Union to Sri Lanka Comprised the Ambassador and several delegates who visited the human rights Commission last evening to extend their cooperation to the commission.

Many concerns relating to the country's Current Economic and Political situation and its impact on the Commission, the PTA and the recent protests and investigation, and recommendations of the HRC on those inquiries and the corporation of the State towards the Commission were some of the concerns raised by the delegation. The Chairman on those concerns appraised them. The Delegation is due to meet the officials of the GOSL today for further discussions.
