

ශ්‍රී ලංකා මානව හිමිකම් කොමිෂන් කොට්ඨාසය
இலங்கை மனித உரிமைகள் ஆணைக்குழு
Human Rights Commission of Sri Lanka

Public Notice No : HRC/Pu/i/E/23/05/23

Public Notice

The Human Rights Commission of Sri Lanka released “Recommended Guidelines to the State and Law Enforcements Officials on Dealing with Civilian Protests” on 12 May 2023. These recommended guidelines were prepared by the Human Rights Commission of Sri Lanka in a period of about one year after consulting legal experts, civil society activists, and law enforcement officers.

It is necessary to take into consideration the public views and comments regarding this recommended guidelines prior to the release of the final guidelines. Accordingly, the general public have been given the opportunity to forward their comments and suggestions in writing in Sinhala/Tamil or English before 09 June 2023. Please forward your views and comments using following guidelines.

1. All proposals must be less than 1500 words limit.
2. Proposals in Sinhala should be in “Iskoola Pota” font, Tamil proposals in “Latha” font and English proposals in “Times New Roman” font.
3. All proposals should be addressed to the Secretary, Sri Lanka Human Rights Commission and sent to the e-mail address rm.director.hrcsl@gmail.com

Recommended guidelines can be downloaded from the following link.

<https://www.hrcsl.lk/hrcsl-issues-recommended-guidelines-on-dealing-with-civilian-protests/>

Media Spokesperson
Sri Lanka Human Rights Commission

23.05.2023